

Andrew B. Engblom

2511 N. 11th St. Arlington, VA 22201 ▪ (202) 365-5363 ▪ employment@aengblom.com

Objective — To continue to expand the skills and experience I have developed as a professional journalist. I am searching for a challenging and engaging position as a news reporter and/or photographer that encourages personal and professional growth.

Education

---

The George Washington University — May 2002

- B.A., Journalism and Political Science (Minor). Concentration in Photography
- Applicable Coursework (GPA: 3.05):
  - Journalism: Covering Court Decisions, Campaign Reporting, Advanced Reporting, Internet News, Computer Assisted Reporting, Photojournalism, Science News, Editing and Design, Broadcast News and Research Methods
  - Politics: Theories of International Politics, American Politics and Government, American Political Traditions and Comparative Politics of Western Europe.

Professional Experience

---

Io Energy (Daily electricity newsletter publisher)

July 2002 – Present

Assistant Editor

- Develop and write articles covering the wholesale and regulated electricity business.
- Promoted from to Assistant Editor of Power Daily Midwest within six months.

WashingtonPost.com

March 2000 – Present

Photo Editor

- Routinely serve as sole editor in charge of photographs for the web site.
- Produce the Day in Photos, a selection of the best photojournalism of the past 24 hours.
- Train new editors and interns to use software and the proprietary publishing system.
- Suggested improvements that were incorporated into the Camera Works section.
- Wrote a memo to senior editors proposing a feature where users could track the developments of major stories chronologically. Implemented as Digest in Iraq War.

Potomac Tech Journal (Weekly business journal)

Sept. 2001 – Dec. 2001

Reporter

- Wrote weekly feature discussing trends and developments in the technology industry.
- Uncovered story ideas for regular beat reporters.
- Interviewed and covered influential business leaders in the Washington region.

GW Journal

March 2001-May 2002

Photo and Online Editor

- Recruited, managed and advised photographers, artists and editors.
- Developed monthly photo essays, stories.
- Created and implemented online edition of the monthly magazine.

Education Week on the Web

June 2000-August 2000

- Categorized and edited a directory of 300 important education organizations.
- Selected pieces for The Daily News, a list of the day's most pertinent education stories.

GW Hatchet

October 1999 – Sept. 2001

- Wrote general news articles for this bi-weekly school paper.

Awards, Skills and Interests

---

- Member of LEAD, a program designed to facilitate on-campus leadership.
- Accepted to the School of Media and Public Affairs a competitive major.
- Photographs published in Bucks County Courier Times and displayed at the Philadelphia Children's Museum and in the George Washington University's Smith Hall of Art.

→ Clips, References and Recommendations are available upon request